CONSIDER AUTHORIZING THE CITY MANAGER TO EXECUTE A PROFESSIONAL SERVICES CONTRACT WITH AEI FOR DESIGN SERVICES FOR THE LEISURE SERVICES RECREATION CENTER

Memorandum To: Mayor Charles Womack Vice-Mayor Steve Qualls Councilwoman Jean Davis Councilman Sam Sallee Councilman Sam Sallee Councilman Ricky Shelton City Manager Jim Shipley From: Rick Woods, Director Date: 09/26/03 Re: Recreation Building Design On Thursday, October 2, I will be requesting your approval of a new professional services contract with AEI for complete design of our indoor recreation facility at Cane Creek Park. Our previous agreement with AEI for work on this facility was for limited design services based on the thought that we could handle reconstruction of our old building with city forces, using both Public Works and Leisure Services personnel, and that we might not need a full set of plans. However, after further discussions with Mr. Shipley, Greg Brown, and Jeff Littrelli, it became apparent that we would need to contract the work of pouring the footers and slab, erecting the steel, and laying the block. Public Works will still be able to do stile preparation and Leisure Services personnel will do the finish work. State law requires us to have complete, stamped plans for a project of this size. AEI estimates the full design fee with complete plans would be $30,000. AEI will apply a credit of $4,550 for work that has already been completed and paid, leaving a balance of $25,450. This will still utilize the steel from the Multi-Rec Center we had on Jefferson and will include design of additional space for a gymnasium. Thank you for your support. Please call me with any questions you may have.

Councilman Sallee made a motion, seconded by Councilman Shelton, to authorize the City Manager to execute a contract with AEI for design services for the Leisure Services Recreation Center. Upon call for a vote, the following voted aye:

Mayor Charles Womack Vice-Mayor Steve Qualls Councilman Jean Davis Councilman Sam Sallee Councilman Ricky Shelton

The City Clerk announced that the motion carried.

CONSIDER AWARDING BID FOR SOFTWARE – POLICE DEPT.

Memorandum

To: Jim Shipley, City Manager
From: Robert Terry

Date: 9/12/2003 CHIEF
Re: computer software

As you know, our current records system is a series of Microsoft Access databases developed by Don Box These databases replaced other pieces of software that, for several reasons, either failed, became obsolete after "y2k" or were never functional in the first place. These databases also served to test implementation of incident reporting on laptop computers.

Most of that custom programming is undocumented. Several persons have evaluated the databases; some less serious problems have actually been corrected. But for the most part, the system moves a little closer to

I know firsthand that Mr. Box only intended to "Bridge" the period until a complete law enforcement software system could be purchased. And he did a wonderful job. But he did not intend to develop a final solution.

We have software problems every day now. Portions of the evidence module are not working. This results in difficulty locating items stored in the vault and could prevent proper documentation of the chain-of-custody. Parts of the incident report module are non-functioning. On a regular basis, officers are submitting reports that "disappear" somewhere in the system. Many supervisors have difficulty approving reports because of software failures.

Because many query and reporting functions have failed, re-accreditation compliance has been adversely affected. If this continues, it will be progressively more difficult (and costly) to "catch up".

Our delivery of 'customer services' suffers; our ability to locate and provide copies of reports, to provide statistical information and to properly comply with public records requests diminishes every day.

An agreement between our Traffic Section and the State of Tennessee, which provided more than twenty mobile computers at no cost to us (+/- $20,000), could be in jeopardy if the incident report module fails and the Department of Safety moves their 'beta test' site to another agency. In addition, TIBRS compliance is a pro-requisite for all law enforcement grants.

I think we are rapidly reverting to a 'post-it notes' records management system. In terms of productivity and "man-hours", we are wasting resources every day to fix those things that can be fixed or developing some plan to address those things that cannot be repaired. The cost to correct problems that are occurring daily will become even greater as time passes.

By proceeding with our information management plan, we can continue to decrease the demand for clerical resources. An immediate benefit would be the automation of TIBEN monthly reporting. That one issue allows the elimination of several hours of part-time employee work every week. If we do not move ahead with such programs as 'im-car' computers (and the software to utilize them), our demand for full-time clerical resources will begin to increase instead of decrease.

Finally, I have several concerns about the security of our information system in general, including juvenile records (a tremendous liability issue). Most security issues cannot be verified because the databases have no logging function at all. A recent virus problem was the direct result of using a wireless network system without proper security features.

With such limited resources in so many other areas, this issue has required far too much attention to have not already been resolved. I believe this to be an actual emergency. Although not life-threatening, it could easily become that when it so interferes with or impairs our operations that we become uninformed and then slow to respond.

Because precise purchase specifications cannot be developed (a similar situation to your utility billing software), we have evaluated the four most comparable software systems that are 'certified' by T.B.I. All are currently in use by several law enforcement agencies in Tennessee. We scheduled one-half day session for each vendor to 'demo' their products at the Police Department.

In the final analysis, two of those systems are probably adequate but are very cost-prohibitive. Another does not meet the needs of our Department (for a long list of reasons). The remaining option is Southern Software police records management software. I have already sent a group of employees, each with expertise in a specific area of information management, to one agency that currently utilizes the Southern Software product. Everyone believes that Southern Software is the best choice for our Department.

The following is a summary of the cost involved. I have also included a copy of the actual proposal.

Police-Pak records management software Computer-aided Dispatch software (including all mapping and address validation) Total software: $132,215.00 (this includes licenses for all mobile and office computers)

Installation and training
Total installation and training: $10,950.00

First-year support (24 hrs / 7 days)

Data conversion and secure wireless network hardware and software Total: $19,198.00

Total Investment: $178,463.00

Should it be more fiscally prudent, there is an option to do capital financing for two to five years at a rate less than five percent.

I feel strongly that we need to resolve this very important issue as soon as possible, even if the funds have to be borrowed (as a last resort) or we have to enter into a lease-purchase agreement. I will be glad to try to answer any questions you may have. Please advise as to how you want me to proceed.

Councilman Shelton made a motion, seconded by Councilman Davis, to award the software bid as recommended. Upon call for a vote, the following voted aye:

Mayor Charles Womack Vice-Mayor Steve Qualls Councilman Jean Davis Councilman Sam Sallee Councilman Ricky Shelton
